

Writing a Prescription for a Compounded Medication – Providers

When Writing A Prescription for a Compounded Medication the Following Information Should be Included:

- 1) Patient identifications (examples: name, date of birth, address)
- 2) Date prescription written
- 3) Allergies
- 4) Indicate prescription is to be compounded
- 5) Generic name of all of the active ingredients
- 6) Strength or Dose of medication (examples: %, milligram, grams)
- 7) Formulation desired (cream, gel, troches, capsule, suppository, ODTs, etc.)
- 8) Quantity desired and/or number of days
- 9) Directions for use
- 10) Medical condition being treated
- 11) Refills, if any. If you have any specific questions regarding formulations, do not hesitate to contact our pharmacy.

COTTRILL'S SPECIALTY PHARMACY
4919 Ellicott, Orchard Park, New York 14127
patientcare@cottrillspharmacy.com

844-COTTRILLS
Local: 716.508.8481
Fx: 716.508.8482

Administrative Hours
MON-FRI: 8:00 am-5:00 pm EST